This area covered by top clamp - your art should bleed over this area - but it will be covered by the clamp.

This banner stand can be adjusted and images in this area should be designed knowing how the banner will be deployed.

This area of the print rolls up in the base - bleed graphics over this area but they will not be seen