

This area covered by top clamp - your art should bleed over this area - but it will be covered by the clamp.

This area of the print rolls up in the base - bleed graphics over this area but they will not be seen